Dennis advertises to raise his business profile and awareness, send out special offers and to generate new customers. Dennis does other forms of advertising, Radio, Newspaper, Television, and other Direct Mail and strongly agrees that Valpak outperforms them all. When asked to comment on his Valpak programs Dennis stated "I have been doing Valpak for many years, since way back in November 2007. It has been the most successful print advertising that I have used and consistently outperforms all other print advertising. Our Marketing Representative is extremely easy to deal with and very attentive to our needs. Pricing's reasonable for the value of our ROI. We also see computer prints and mobile coupons quite often from our Valpak Digital Program." Dennis would highly recommend Valpak to other business owners.
