Eric Menard, owner of Complete Martial Arts Academy has been running with Valpak since November 2016. Eric chose to run in Valpak to help promote his Academy, bring in more students and to build his presence online. When we asked Eric to tell us how Valpak has helped his business he stated "We have received over 30 calls in the last eight months, we have also had two sign ups in the last three months" We then asked Eric how his Valpak success compared to other marketing efforts he has taken and he went on to say "Valpak by far has been the best marketing for our business. Valpak outperforms Spectrum Monthly and the local newspaper. The customer service is great and I get my performance reports every month. I love how we are online the whole time and I love how it goes out every month!"
